

Here's a 2-day romantic itinerary in Southern Oxfordshire — riverside walks, hidden villages, candlelit dinners, and dreamy countryside views.

Day 1 – Henley & The Thames

Morning: Riverside Wandering in Henley-on-Thames

One of the prettiest Thames towns — elegant but relaxed.

Start with:

- Coffee at a café overlooking the river
  - A gentle stroll across Henley Bridge
  - Walk part of the Thames Path toward Marsh Lock

Late Morning: Boat for Two

Hire a rowing boat or small motor launch on the Thames. Drifting past willow trees and meadows is peak English romance.

Pack:

- Strawberries
- Local cheeses
- A bottle of chilled wine

(Several boat hire companies operate directly from the riverside in town.)

---

Afternoon: Tudor Charm at Grey's Court

A hidden gem just outside Henley.

- Intimate Tudor manor house
- Walled gardens and rose borders
- Woodland walks with sweeping Chiltern views

It feels private and peaceful — perfect for slow wandering together.

Evening: Sunset & Dinner

Head to The Angel on the Bridge for riverside dining or

The Bull on Bell Street for cozy, candlelit atmosphere.

Stay overnight in Henley at a boutique inn or riverside hotel.

Day 2 – Villages, Views & Hidden Corners

Morning: Storybook Beauty in Ewelme

One of England's most perfectly preserved villages.

- Visit St Mary the Virgin Church
- Wander past the medieval almshouses
- Walk beside the spring-fed streams

It's peaceful, quiet, and feels wonderfully untouched.

Late Morning: Chiltern Views in Goring-on-Thames

Cross the bridge to Streatley and walk up into the Chiltern Hills.

For a memorable lunch setting:

- The Swan at Streatley (river views)
or
- A countryside pub in Goring

After lunch, walk a stretch of the Ridgeway for panoramic views over the Thames Valley.

Afternoon: Grand Romance at Nuneham Courtenay

An 18th-century landscaped estate with sweeping lawns and big-sky views over the Thames.

- Walk to the classical church
  - Find a quiet bench overlooking the river
  - Perfect golden-hour photography spot

Optional Romantic Extras 🍵

- Afternoon tea at a country hotel
- A sunset picnic in the Chilterns
- Spa treatment at a countryside retreat
- Time your visit with Henley Royal Regatta week for extra glamour
